Overcoming Gender Bias in the Workplace

Join Andie Kramer for an interactive conversation on overcoming gender bias in the workplace. Co-author of the popular book "Breaking Through Bias: Communication Techniques for Women to Succeed at Work" and the forthcoming book "It's Not You, It's the Workplace: Women's Conflict at Work and the Bias that Built It", Andie will discuss how stereotypes and the biases that flow from them prevent women from advancing as far and as fast in their careers as men. She will provide specific insights and techniques women can use to avoid or overcome often subtle and unconscious biases. Andie will discuss real life scenarios involving gender-biased interactions and ways to overcome biased workplace situations.

"Breaking Through Bias: Communication Techniques for Women to Succeed at Work" will be on sale for $20.00 plus tax ($22.05). Credit cards accepted. Andie will be available for a book signing.
